	My mind this is another hard case. Such cases proverbially make bad law. But exceptions can, it seems to me, be justified occasionally. The Mr. Y. K. Murthi is subject to asthma yet he is an energetic & zealous officer with a reputation for straight dealing. He might have been granted an extension of service but this was not done. The view taken by the Irrl. Dept. cannot be taken Exception to, for it is laid down by codal rules. I am of opinion Lawrence that some relief can be afforded to a deserving officer by effecting a sort of compromise. A portion of the period required to complete the term may be treated as leave & the rest condoned. What would be less objectionable & preferable is to reconsider his case grant an extension of service by twelve months & condone the shortage required to make up the specified period.

Krishna Murthi, one of the officers whose retirement has been sanctioned from 1st July 1920, represents that if he is retired ffom service as ordered, his qualifying service will not amount to 25 years and that consequently he will not be entitled to a pension of Rs. 225/- being half of his present pay and requests that he may be shewn any one of the following concessions:-

(i) An extension of service for 19 months, or

The Financial Secretary is of opinion that concession (ii) asked for is not admissible under the rules, and, that as regards concession (iii) privilege leave combined with furlough for the period asked for cannot be given under the codal rules to a superannuated Officer of Government, and that, even if furlough be given, only one year thereof and not the whole period, can be counted as service in the case of Mr. Krishna Murthi.

3. Mr. Krishna Murthi has put in a total service of 23 years 4 months and 15 days including a service of 5 years, 11 months and 20 days, rendered as Revenue Probationer and Probationary Assistant Superintendent of Police. The Comptroller states that if this latter period is allowed to count, Mr. Krishna Murthi's qualifying service comes up to 23 years, 4 months and 15 days and that he will be eligible to be given a pension of Rs. 172-8-0.

Sir,

In connection with my retirement, I beg to bring to your kind notice that I have not completed 25 years of service as yet, and I shall not be entitled to full pension till I put in a further service of 19 months. If under these circumstances I am retired from next July my pension amount will be curtailed by Rs. 53 which will seriously affect my pension on which I have to solely depend after my retirement.

Now I request you, Sir, to kindly show me any one of the following concessions:--

(i) To grant me an extension of service for 19 months; or

(ii) To grant me 3 months privilege leave and 16 months furlough in continuation; or

(iii) To condone 19 months of service required to complete 25 years of service.

I beg leave to appeal to your generosity and hope that you will be pleased to accord sanction to my request.
